Annie
St. Martin

Annie St. Martin

was born and raised in Rhode Island, a professional floral designer for most of her adult life, Annie found her passion for painting later in life. She turned her passion into a thriving business, painting murals and unusual faux techniques, for the most discriminating clients. From whimsical nurseries to romantic Venetian landscapes, her artistic background gives her a unique ability to breathe life into your dreams and visions.

Annie has studied with many distinguished artists that include:
Gale Bennett, Greg Biolchini, Parker Harlowe, and Jan-Ellen Atkielski.

Annie is currently a member of Arts for Act Gallery, Center for the Arts Bonita Springs, Alliance for the Arts and the Painters and Artists League of Gateway.

Annie continues to be fascinated with and draws inspiration from a quiet walk in nature, the beauty of a sunset, the sound of the pounding surf or simply watching a butterfly light in the garden.

Forever a student, her deep faith in God and her passion for life, friends and family are always reflected in her art.
