Watercolor and Pen & Ink

Maizie Argondizza

“I am both exhilarated and humbled by the most basic elements in nature: thundering waves crashing on ageless rocks, the parade of glorious and eternally unique sunsets, sunbleached stumps in a rock cradle, the coldness of snow on leafless tree limbs. I want to capture nature’s beauty and share my artistic voice with others. Inspired by the stark and hauntingly beautiful black and white photographs taken by my son, Andrew, my pen & ink drawings are my loving and painstakingly detailed interpretation of the amazing world around me. My watercolors take attention to detail a step further with the addition of translucent layers of color.”

A resident of Fort Myers in winter, Maizie summers in her home state of Maine. She was an educator for thirty-six years, serving as a classroom teacher, consultant and directed the student teaching program at the University of Southern Maine. She served as a national trainer and had her own consulting business. She began studying watercolor in Maine with artist Polly Blythe Goss and is now a member of the Fort Myers Art League. Argondizza’s pen and inks are a labor of love that will leave you wanting to know the location of each one. Her watercolors will intrigue you by the way the color’s blend in unexpected ways when dropped on wet paper.
